

Contents

Acknowledgements	iv
Message	v
Map of Ipoh Town c. 1921	vi
Foreword	vii
Map of Perak	viii
Introduction	ix
The Lord of Kinta	1
The Beginnings of a Town	7
Towkays	19
Coolies	29
The Metropolis of Perak	37
Bullock-carters and Ghari-wallahs	67
Rickshaw Pullers	75
Beri-berics and Vagrants	79
Mui Tsais and Nonias	83
Chetties	91
Club-wallahs	95
Petition Writers and Lawyers	101
Educationists	107
Entrepreneurs	113
Millionaires	121
The Hub of Malaya	147
State Councillors	191
Social Activists	199

Reformers and Resisters	221
Tributers	231
Equestrians.....	237
Motorists	247
Restaurateurs and Hoteliers.....	253
Apothecaries and Surgeons	259
The Capital of Tinland	265
Planters.....	295
Sportsmen	301
Federal Councillors	311
Revolutionaries.....	323
The Tinopolis	333
Agitators	359
Persisters.....	369
Dulang Washers.....	377
The Cosmopolis.....	383
Wives and Concubines.....	407
Gourmets	413
The City of Architectural Splendour	421
Successors to the Tin King	439
The Cinderella of the FMS	445
The River of Silt.....	461
The Unofficial Capital of the Silver State.....	475
Ironsmiths.....	495
Patriarchs	501
Fossickers	509

General Practitioners	515
Barristers-at-law.....	525
The Trio of Honour.....	535
Medical Specialists	541
The Vale of Tin and Tears	549
Squatters.....	565
Dwellers Under the Bridges	577
Hawkers and Peddlers.....	581
The Fortunes of Birchtown	587
Scholars	597
Beauties	605
The Hub Humming Again	609
Badminton Buffs.....	625
The Entertainment Centre of Kinta.....	631
The Vanquished Lady	643
Icon	653
Writers	661
Comrades-in-arms.....	667
Flying Tigers	675
Return of the Miners	681
Visionary Herbalist.....	691
At the Crossroads.....	695
Contrarian.....	701
The Last of the Tin Miners	705
Index	719
About the Author	724